

Carol Fox

Saturday, March 29th. Telephone call from Mrs. Carol Fox.

Mrs. Fox says that on the first plane will be Mr. Li and Mr. McKenna and two Sky Marshalls. On the second plane will be Mr. Mai and Mr. Kung.

Coming on a commercial flight early the morning of the 8th will be Carol Fox, Forrest Bailey, Meredith Palmer and Vic Covey, and we will need a car to the Freight Yard.

Also for that day we will need a picnic hamper containing sandwiches, cookies, etc., and a large thermos of tea, so the Chinese can have some tea while they are waiting.

The evening of the 8th we should have Mrs. O'Brien prepare or have ready lots of sandwiches and pots of coffee at the Gallery, for the people working late.

Telephone conversation with Carol Fox, April 1st, 1975.

Carol Fox, Meredith Palmer and Victor Covey and Forrest Bailey leave on TWA Flight 237 at 8:00 am and arrive in K.C. at 11:00 am, and they want to be fed lunch at the airport.

There will be McKenna and the Chinese on the other TWA Flight. They want lunch during the flight.

During the unpacking they always have a tea break of half an hour, from 10:30 - 11:00 , and from 3:30 to 4:00.

Carol Fox has paid the Chinese up to the 9th. We must have $500 to take care of them from the 9th through the 13th, to be paid on the 9th. Eavh successive Monday after that, $700 a week.

John Barcroft and Alex Lacy want L.S. and Marc for dinner Friday, April 18th.

Questions for Carol Fox:

1. To what extent must one announce State Department aid toward the Exhibition?
2. Should the Chinese sign a weekly receipt?
3. Kindly explain exactly how much is given each Chinese curator. Is $20 a day correct? If so then each one of them saves $5.00 per day.
4. What are educational and cultural allowances?
5. If the escort interpreter takes the group or individuals from the group to visit, say St. Louis, what expenses can he legitimately charge over and above his stipend? Transportation and hotel?
